

FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

Federal regulations require students to progress toward degree completion

APPEAL PROCESS

Students who do not meet the SAU requirements have the right to petition the Safestran Academic Progress Committee.

The committee will review the student's academic record and determine if the student meets the requirements.

Circumstances which are unusual or extraordinary such as death of a relative or illness of the student may be considered.

The committee will make a recommendation to the Dean of the College.

The Dean will make a final decision on the student's status.

The student will be notified of the final decision.

The student may appeal the final decision.

The appeal process will be completed within 30 days.

The student will be notified of the appeal process.
